

NO NO NO to cell phones in flight. People have no sense of manners or politeness when using a cell phone around others. Put the boors who have to use the phone (loudly all the time it seems) in the closed environment of an airplane and the polite people around them may not remain polite.